Later he took charge of the Victor Emanuel Polish Lutheran church on Reese street. He was well liked by every one who knew him and was a well educated man. Short services were held at the house by the Lutheran league and the remains were then taken to the Holy Trinity church, where funeral services according to the Lutheran ritual were held. Interment was made in Dunmore cemetery.

The flower-bearers were Misses Jennie Lewis, Lizzie Danvers, Hattie Sharpless and Maggie Williams. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas and Isaac Mills, John Davis, Hector Davis, Charley Evans and David Evans. Interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

ARAB PEDDLER HELD UP.

An Arab peddler on his way to Carbondale was held up by four young fellows Monday afternoon on Parker street. He was walking along the boulevard when he was espied by the four who quickly collared him and turned his pockets inside out. They were arrested by Officer Dugan, who had seen them looting there and who immediately identified them by the description the Arab gave him, and arrested them before Alderman Meyers. At the trial yesterday morning one stated they were only frightening him by threatening to be secret officers looking for peddlers without a license. He stated that he searched the Arab

In some of the finer numbers offered sizes are slightly broken, but you can count on getting something to suit in every sale price named:

- 29 Cents: Buys the pick of as nice a half dollar line as was ever shown in Scranton. Choice materials, designs and peerless choice of patterns. Closing Price, 29c
39 Cents: Each is the new price for 65c shirt-waists. The range of colorings, patterns and materials is still complete. They are virtually thrown away at the Closing Price, 39c
69 Cents: Quite a jump in price, but its nearest we can come under the circumstances. For service you cannot get a better waist at any price. White, some of the designs, show style enough and to spare. Closing Price, 69c
89 Cents: Buys waist identical with those offered at $1.25 earlier in the season. Materials, trimmings, workmanship and design all join in proclaiming these elegant shirt-waists as nearly perfect as skill can make them. Closing Price, 89c

The meeting was called for the purpose of conducting general business.

Mr. Payton led an attack on the street commissioner's pay-roll, and after a lengthy discussion a resolution was adopted limiting the commissioner to an expenditure of $150 per month. Instructions were given the street commissioner to notify all parties maintaining poles or trees on the line of the sidewalks, to remove them at once. It was decided to insure all the stationary property of the fire department to grade and sod the grounds about the borough building; to procure four new coats for the jail; to have the cells painted; to repair the bridges at Laurel and Oak streets, and on Franklin street, near Spencer's place.

MONKEYS AT GIBRALTAR.

Formerly Quite Numerous They are Now Reduced to Fifty. From the Chicago News. Gibraltar is noted for the monkeys which live there. Visitors watch for them by the hour and they may not appear, yet occasionally in full daylight they will cross the walls and roof surrounding the old cemetery from the Alameda gardens, where they go to drink at the fountain. A dozen years ago these monkeys, or Barbary apes, were quite numerous, but there are less than fifty now. The present English governor of Gibraltar has a tank fixed and kept filled with water, at which the monkeys drink, and they regularly visit it twice a day. A subaltern tells an amusing story concerning this colony of animals. About two years ago some officers managed to detach a small monkey from its fellows at the drinking trough and kept it for a fortnight in captivity. Then, for reasons of their own, they thought well to restore it. So they took the little beast back to the drinking trough early one morning before the others had arrived and watched it in ambush. Presently the monkey colony came, reconnoitered and observing the trunk—as they evidently considered him—a consuetudinary. After much chattering two of the largest apes approached the returned wanderer, who appeared petrified with fear, seized him by his arms and, apparently strangling him, threw him over the precipice beneath the signal station, evidently in revenge as a deserter.

FOOTE & FULLER CO., 140-142 Washington Ave. TRIBUNE WANT ADS. BRING QUICK RETURNS.

THE LEADER Scranton Store, 124-126 Wyoming Avenue. An extraordinary sale of women's fine silk waists. Being over-stocked on fancy silks we picked out about two hundred waist patterns ranging in price from $1.25 to $3.50 the yard and had them made to our special order into the most magnificent line of silk waists we have ever shown. These waists having been made according to our direction, combine more style and richer elegance than you can find in the majority of ready-to-wear garments. Of that you can convince yourself at a glance. We have included some of the richest and most expensive taffetas and brocades in this lot and have sorted them in four great lots: 1.98 for waists that are worth from $3 to $4. 2.98 for waists that are worth from $4 to $5. 3.98 for waists that are worth from $5 to $6. 4.98 for waists that are worth from $7 to $10. There are about six distinctly different styles—some of them being tucked in clusters front and back. No such display of silk waists has ever greeted you before, and certainly no such low prices for values such as we offer you here.
